Singapore Students' Society / SRC Privacy Policy

This information is collected for the sole purpose of administration of the Singapore Students' Society, herein referred to as 'SingSoc', regarding the activities and functions of this society. Your student number will only be used for verification that you are a student of La Trobe University and will be discarded after seven (7) days of processing your society application. You have the right to view and modify any information SingSoc and the La Trobe SRC holds regarding your membership of SingSoc, as specified in the SingSoc and/or SRC privacy policy. We do not disclose any of your personal information to any party outside SingSoc and the SRC, including the university body. Your personal information will only be handled once by the society on data entry, then can only be retrieved by the SingSoc administration officer and the clubs and societies administration officer. If you do not provide the necessary information, your application for membership for SingSoc may be denied.

If you agree to the above-mentioned information, please tick the box, sign and date.

NOTE: failure to do so negates your request for club membership. For further information, please request a copy of the SRC Privacy Policy, from the SRC.

I have read the privacy policy and I accept the terms stated as above.
